

TORNADO SINKS STEAMER

Ravenna Capsizes Near Du- buque and Four Men Drown.

FIFTEEN OF THE CREW SAVED

Cling to Overturned Hull Until Taken Off by a Passing Steamboat—Cap- tain and Three Others Go Down With Ill-Fated Vessel.

Dubuque, Ia., June 13.—A tornado yesterday overturned and sank the steamer Ravenna, at Maquoketeau, four miles up the river. The captain and three others were drowned. The steamer Trol rescued fifteen men, who clung to the bottom of the Ra- venna. The dead: Captain John Hoy, Stillwater; Clerk Byron Task, Still water; Louis Walker, Rhodes Land- ing; boy named Dell, LaCrosse.

The tornado struck the steamer without warning and it keeled over to starboard. The crew were thrown into the water, but some of them managed to crawl up on the bottom of the overturned steamer. Captain Hoy was at the wheel, with all the windows in the pilot house closed, and was caught as in a trap. Clerk Trask was in his office and likewise had no chance to save himself. Captain Hoy's son was asleep in a stateroom and awakened by the overturning of the boat, kicked open a skylight and escaped.

The men, huddled together on the overturned hull and clinging to the slippery sides for their lives, peered eagerly through the rain for a boat of some sort to save them. After nearly an hour of anxious waiting they sighted the steamer Teal coming down on its daily trip. Coats, hats, handkerchiefs and everything available were waved at it. Finally the Teal sighted the unfortunates and turned toward them. The course against the shifting winds was a hard one, but the Teal succeeded in coming alongside and making fast long enough for the men perched on the hull of the overturned steamer to climb to safety. Three survivors were picked up from the Iowa shore by a gasoline launch and three others from the Wisconsin shore. These men, unable to see the boat, reached land by swimming across the river.

STUDENTS CAUGHT IN STORM.

Take Refuge in School House and Are Crushed in Debris.

Des Moines, June 13.—For the first time within two days telegraphic and telephone communication with Wash- ington, Ia., has been obtained.

Four wagon loads of students enjoy- ing a picnic at Copoc, nine miles north of Washington, were caught by the storm during their return journey. One wagon, containing nine members of the high school class which had just graduated, sought shelter in a school house, which was blown to pieces, burying all in the debris. The injured: Mildred McAtlin, chest crushed, bones broken in several places and body bruised, eyes filled with mortar, blind, will die; Charles Chance, collar bone broken in several places, badly crushed all over, still unconscious, recovery doubtful; Myrtle Stewart, badly bruised about head and face; Blanche Stewart, shoulder dislocated, head cut, bruised; Myrtle Shields, leg badly injured, severely bruised; Jessie Klein, back wrenched, badly cut; Gertie Reeves, face cut seriously; Mary Jerrard, ankle dislocat- ed, several flesh wounds.

Storm Damage at Elgin.

Elgin, Ill., June 13.—Three persons injured and many hundreds of dollars' worth of property damaged are the results of a tornado which swept Elgin and vicinity last night. Hundreds of persons took refuge in cellars and out-of-way places. Charles Dane, night watchman at the watch case fac- tory, was hurt by a falling plank. Mrs. F. Jane of Algonquin was buried under the ruins of a barn. Charles Spiller was cut in the breast by flying glass.

Circus Tent Blown Down.

Miss Clara Campbell, aged twenty, was hurt about the back and may not recover. Samuel Utterbeck was seriously injured in the head. The injuries of the others were slight. The tent was crowded at the time of the accident.

Convicts Elude Pursuers.

Portland, Ore., June 13.—Harry Tracy and David Merrill, the escaped convicts who were surrounded in the woods near Gervais by the sheriff's posse and state troops, eluded their pursuers during the night, and at 6 o'clock in the morning were seen five miles north of Gervais. The fugitives stopped at a farm house, where they took breakfast and obtained some food to take with them.

Slain in Their Sleep.

Sturgis, S. D., June 13.—George Pulck, formerly of Sioux City, and George Ostrander, formerly of Correctionville, Ia., were found murdered yesterday in their cabin on Pulck's ranch, eighty miles from Sturgis. They were both slain in their beds. Evidently Pulck was shot first. There was no sign of a struggle. No motive is known for the crime, unless it was robbery.

Tornado and Cloudburst at Ottumwa.

Ottumwa, Ia., June 13.—A miniature tornado and cloudburst broke hun- dreds of plate glass windows in this city yesterday, flooded basements and did heavy damage to farm buildings in this vicinity.

FIST FIGHT STIRS MONTANA.

Ex-Congressman Campbell's Son is Pitted Against Pugilist.

Butte, Mont., June 13.—All Montana is stirred up over a sensational bare knuckle fight which took place last night between Roy Campbell, a son of ex-Congressman A. J. Camp- bell, and William G. Mangan, an ath- lete of some local repute, and said to be a protegee of W. A. Clarke, Jr. The affair is said to be an outgrowth of the bitter political fight made against Senator Clarke several years ago, in which Congressman Campbell was a leading figure.

Yesterday Campbell and Mangan met at a ball game and Mangan is al- leged to have insulted Campbell, who promptly knocked him down. Later in the day Campbell was wait- ed upon by friends of Mangan and told that he must fight the latter. Camp- bell, who is but 20 years old, ten years the junior of Mangan, referred the matter to his father. The ex-congres- man is said to have told his son that he must meet Mangan and beat him. A number of friends of the contest- ants drove some distance out from Butte, where a ring was pitched. The two men stripped to the waist and the battle began. It was a bloody affair and lasted but three rounds. Campbell landed frequently upon Man- gan, but his blows lacked steam and were ineffective. Near the end of the third round the more experienced pug- ilist landed on the student's jaw and knocked him out. Young Clarke is said to have been the referee.

DEATH OF JUDGE HUBBARD.

Succumbs to Injuries Received in Run- away Accident at Cedar Rapids.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., June 13.—Judge Nathaniel Meade Hubbard, chief counsel for the Northwestern railway in Iowa and a leading politician in this state, died at his residence in this city yesterday afternoon from injuries received in a runaway accident. It had been his practice of late to spend considerable time at his farm just outside the city limits, and last Mon- day evening he was driving with a fast team hitched to a farm wagon with dump boards. The team ran away and Judge Hubbard was thrown out, the hind wheel passing over his right side and shoulder. Four of his ribs were broken and the fractures caused serious internal injuries.

Davis, it is said, was a kinsman of Clinton Legear, with whose killing Governor and Drury Lawson are charged. It is said that Davis and Seal would have been im- portant witnesses against the Law- sons. Perry Myers has been arrested and other arrests may follow.

Work of A. O. U. W.

Portland, Ore., June 12.—The sec- ond day's session of the supreme council of the A. O. U. W. was taken up mostly in the assignment of com- mittees. Among the subjects of in- terest suggested for adoption by the supreme lodge is the adoption of a plan to obviate the necessity of sus- pensions, a method of collecting sta- tistics and a permanent representative in the fraternal congress of the United States.

Batterson's Slayer Arrested.

Maryville, Kan., June 13.—James Dalton, one of the murderers of Charles B. Batterson, a deputy sheriff, in this city April 6, 1898, has been ar- rested at San Antonio, Tex. Dalton and his companions, Edward Royal and Tom Taylor, were arrested for burglary and were placed in jail here in charge of Batterson. They escaped into the corridor, where they found Batterson sleeping. They killed him and fled.

Crew Murdered by Savages.

Victoria, B. C., June 13.—According to advices received by the steamer Aorangi, a Malay sailor recently ar- rived at Port Darwin and reported that he was the only survivor of a crew of ten men of a Malay trading schooner, which had been wrecked off Cape Wilberforce, north Australia. The crew was attacked by blacks and all but one murdered. The survivor suffered severely from privation be- fore being rescued.

More Potato.

Renan had a great contempt for mere words, however eloquent. One evening he met at a sort of literary dinner M. Caro, the philosopher beloved of fine ladies, who set himself to prove a cer- tain theory. His eloquent assertions did not seem to interest the sage. In the middle of one of his most sonorous periods M. Renan attempted to make himself heard.

But all the ladies were intensely in- terested. They would not have their pleasure spoiled. "In a moment, M. Renan, we will lis- ten to you in your turn." He bowed submissively. Toward the end of dinner M. Caro, out of breath, stopped with a rhetorical emphasis. At once every one turned toward the illustrious scholar, hoping that he would enter the lists, and the hostess, with an encouraging smile, said: "Now, M. Renan—"

"I am afraid, dear lady, that I am now a little behindhand." "No, no!" "I wanted to ask for a little more po- tato."—Fortnightly Review.

A Kind Hearted Waiter.

A surprising experience was that of a lady who received a bit of advice on table etiquette. She is sufficiently free from vanity to tell the story herself. She says:

"I know that I am not a person of im- pressive appearance. I am inclined to be short and stout and to dress plainly; still I had hoped that I had an air of acquaintance with polite society. But now I shall be more modest than ever in my idea of the impression I make upon strangers.

At my first meal at the hotel where I passed last summer I was pleased with the face of my waiter. It was radiant with kindness and good na- ture. I began my dinner with soup and fish. As the waiter set them in front of me he glanced at the persons of fashionable appearance who were my neighbors at table. His kind heart was suddenly struck with the fear that I might make an unfortunate impres- sion on them.

He bent down and whispered in my ear: "Eat your soup first."

Aching Voids.

"Brooks," said Rivers, "that's the second time I've heard you use the phrase 'aching void.' I wish you would tell me how a void can ache."

"Well," said Brooks, reflecting a mo- ment, "not to speak of a hollow tooth, don't you sometimes have the head- ache?"—Chicago Tribune.

There Was No Music.

"What is the greatest fib that ever impressed itself on your experience, Snapper?"

"Well, by all odds, the worst one I ever heard was that your quartet per- petrated last night when they came round to the house and sang, 'There's Music in the Air.'"

Caution

This is not a gentle world—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for 75c the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1808 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and espe- cially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.

Whooping Cough.

My little son had an attack of whoop- ing cough and was threatened with pneumonia, but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. Strickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by Kiesau Drug Co.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for bil- iousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and in- active bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulat- ing the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Mundeville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." The Kiesau Drug Co.

Read it in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known Ger- man citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the un- bearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties. He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of his wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by Kiesau Drug Co.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.

Daniel Bante of Otterville, Iowa, writes, "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all. A. H. Kiesau.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful ad- vance in medicine is given by Druggist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and ap- plied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treat- ment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50 cents, salve 25 cents at the Kiesau Drug Co.

Leads Them All.

"One minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curran of Loganton, Pa. One minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers every- where testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. Was Wasting Away.

The following letter from Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., is instructive. "I have been troubled with kidney dis- ease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all reme- dies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than a week my troubles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." A. H. Kiesau.

AN OLD SORE

months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, and that the dregs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up with healthy flesh and the skin regains its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed. S. S. S. will purify and invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other hurtful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood is carried to the diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh begins to have a healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore heals.

Several years ago, my wife had a se- vere sore leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since. J. E. MAROLD, 22 Canal St., Cohoes, N. Y.
